ADJOURN

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

April 2015

Thank you Mr. Brinkley.

It has been a very busy time period for ECU. Over a six week period, we’ve had meetings of every affiliated entity, a significant event in New Bern for the ECU Foundation, an excellent Board of Visitors meeting last week, the Board of Governors, and now the Board of Trustees. On Saturday, we have events for the Alumni Board along with the Board of Visitors. I’m greatly appreciative of the engagement of our Trustees in so many of these processes. In about two weeks, many of you along with President Ross will be involved in our commencement ceremonies.

Economic Development

Dr. Mitchelson and Dr. Morris have made numerous presentations over the last few weeks regarding our economic development projects. Yesterday, you heard Dr. Morris discuss the Millennial Campus designation, recently approved by the Board of Governors. Dr. Mitchelson made an excellent presentation on our economic impacts. Just in case you missed it, ECU:

- Contributes $1.3 billion dollars each year to the local economy (defined as an 8 county proximity zone);
- Contributes $1.8 billion dollars each year to Eastern North Carolina;
- Contributes $2.8 billion dollars each year to North Carolina;

The return on the investment of the State is estimated at 10:1 and the return on the state’s contribution to the Brody School is 14:1.

While our primary mission is educational, I think everyone can agree that we also make an essential economic contribution, especially to the east.

These economic develop impacts and our new millennial designation are catalysts for new partnerships with business and industry...and that is exactly what the millennial designation is intended to make happen. We recently signed our second partnership agreement with IBM, thanks to the hard work of David White in the College of Engineering and Technology.
In addition, ECU is teaming with Pitt Community College to develop a premier education and training network for the pharmaceutical industry. This partnership received a $1.75 million grant from the Golden Leaf Foundation, the largest grant given by that foundation this year. The grant will be used to establish a Center of Excellence in Bio-Pharmaceutical Workforce Development.

Academic Quality

The primary theme in my remarks this year is academic quality and I will continue that theme today by mentioning the achievements of two very different programs.

First is the Medical Family Therapy Program, a doctoral program we created 10 years ago to combine the strengths of our faculty in family behaviors with those of our medical school. We are very proud of this program which has gone from a hope 10 years ago to national prominence today. For example:
A degree from this program is a virtual guarantee of a good job. The program has placed 100% of its graduates. They go to such places as post-docs at Johns Hopkins and the Chicago Center for Family Health. Every student in the program over the past 8 years has been funded by external grants directed by faculty of the Center; Alumni of the center are nationally known and leading this area of clinical practice. They have gone to prestigious positions at Duke, Ohio State, and Nebraska Medical Center. The Program is doing very well in building ECU’s research reputation – today, six externally funded grants are directed by faculty of the program.

And, as you would expect, the faculty of the center are fully engaged in the Greenville community and surrounding counties to provide behavioral healthcare. Community Service includes a partnership with Seymour Johnson Air Force Base.

Yesterday, we learned that the Medical Family Therapy program was selected as the recipient for the 2015 American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy Training Award. This is the highest national honor given by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy to a training program.
An area of excellence at ECU which has not received enough attention is our world class College of Fine Arts and Communication under the leadership of Dean Chris Buddo. Their accomplishments include excellence in theatre, dance, metallurgy and many other visual and performing arts.

Two performers are world-renown. You heard the quality of ARA Gregorian and his Chamber Music Festival during the visit by the Board of Governors. Ara is bringing both world class performances to North Carolina, and also bringing the very top quality of students to study here.

And, the School of Music Chamber singers became the first American choir to ever win the International Choral Completion, recently completed in Slovenia. The competition is part of the European Grand Prix for Choral Singing. ECU was the only group invited from the Americas.

Congratulations to Director Andrew Crane, to the School of Music Director, Chris Ulffers, and to all 32 students of the Choral Group.
RANKINGS

I will close with a brief word about ranking of universities. We primarily pay attention to indicators of our mission because we believe we have a distinct, bold and authentic mission for ECU.

However, it is always nice when others rate us positively, especially when they use criteria that fit our mission.

Two examples are important. First, the Non-Profit group “Educate to Careers” ranked 1200 US universities based on the affordability of the degrees along with what actually happened to the students in terms of jobs and earnings. ECU ranked 4th of all universities in Return on Investment.

Similarly, the Washington Monthly reviewed American universities based on cost and “Band for the Buck.” In the Southeast region, ECU ranked first.

I think we have a great story to tell prospective students and parents based on these results.
Remarks to the ECU Board of Trustees
Andrew T. Morehead, Jr., Chair of the Faculty
April 24, 2015

Good morning! The Faculty Senate held our last meeting of the year on the 14th of April, completing our 50th year of shared governance here at ECU. Our celebration of those fifty years culminated at the end of March with a reception hosted by the Chancellor in which we presented medallions to the faculty, staff, and administrators nominated and selected for making a significant contribution to shared governance at ECU.

At the organizational meeting on the 21st of April, the Faculty Senate elected Professor John Stiller of the Department of Biology as the Chair of the Faculty for the next year. Professor Kylie Dotson-Blake (Counselor Education) will become Vice-Chair following her service this year as Secretary, and Professor Donna Kain of the English Department will be Secretary next year.

This really has been a busy and momentous year. With the help of the procedures in the Faculty Manual, the faculty of the College of Human Ecology departments were distributed into other colleges of their choice, and the reduction in the number of colleges will result in administrative savings that may be redirected into teaching and research efforts. With faculty members as influential parts of the workgroups, the University Committee on Fiscal Sustainability reports on the foundations curriculum and on the consolidation of the basic sciences in the School of Medicine are nearing completion.

The Faculty Governance Committee of the Senate has neared completion of the (long) process of revising the tenure and promotion section of the Faculty Manual. A campus forum followed the meeting this week with another taking place next week to obtain feedback on that draft. We firmly intend to present the finalized version for approval at the first Senate meeting in the fall so that it can be sent to the General Administration shortly thereafter. With the recent Senate vote approving the revised post-tenure review process, we will have completed revisions of one of the most critical sections of the Faculty Manual.

As I alluded to previously, this has also been a momentous, 50th year for the Faculty Senate, for the Faculty Assembly, and for the University. As you are well aware, we have completed the Provost search with the appointment of Dr. Ron Mitchelson. The mandated five-year strategic plan process took up plenty of time and effort for the faculty, staff, and administration here at ECU, but in my mind Beyond Tomorrow reflects three commitments we all believe are critical – student success, public service and regional transformation.

The debate around the naming of Aycock Residence Hall ultimately resulted in the decision to transition the name to a new location, Heritage Hall, which, once completed, will reflect the history, diversity of perspectives, and often problematic roots of the institution we have become. I appreciate how all involved in the debate were passionate but remained respectful of other perspectives, and in particular I am very proud of our students. They reflected the lessons we all hope we are teaching: that we should engage in our university and the free exchange of ideas, and that we should passionately advocate for our beliefs.

Finally, the Board of Governor’s decision to transition the UNC Presidency and their actions around UNC Centers and Institutes and the revised Chancellor search procedures prompted the Senate to pass resolutions strongly advocating our position that the faculty, staff, students, and administration of East Carolina University are best positioned to decide what kind of institution best serves our community.

It has been a privilege to serve as Chair of the Faculty this year, and to work with the Board, administration, faculty, students and staff as we tackled these challenges. Thanks for your attention, and I would be happy to answer any questions.
The Board of Visitors had our last meeting of the year on April 17, 2015.

Committee updates and accomplishments:

1) Legislative Advocacy Committee – seeks to support the UNC Board of Governors, the ECU Board of Trustees, and the Office of the Chancellor in promoting the University’s budget and policy agenda before the North Carolina General Assembly and other governing bodies.

   This committee is chaired by Reid Tyler and is advised by Michelle Brooks.

   - Interactive session with legislators on our campus: this event was held on February 9th and the purpose of the session was to highlight several programs related to our strategic priorities, and to have interaction/discussion with students, faculty, and business leaders.

   - University Day at the Legislature: this event was held March 25th. This traditionally is the day to discuss the UNC policy agenda. Each campus brings a small delegation to Raleigh to interact with legislators.

   - Board of Visitors reception in Raleigh: this was held last Thursday, April 16th. The BOV has started a tradition of having our spring meeting in Raleigh and inviting legislators to our reception the evening before the meeting. Our event last week went well and we had representation from the legislature, the Speaker’s office, General Administration, and others.

   - Contacts spreadsheet: a spreadsheet has been created to track connections we have to legislators and other key leaders.

   - BOV members are ready to assist the BOT on legislative affairs if and when support is needed. In particular, if there are any known elected officials we should target for a visit and/or thank you please let us know.

2) Engagement Committee – seeks to “engage” the membership by continuously seeking ways to get members involved. This should help members be more effective in their role. Some initiatives include “buddy/mentor system” for new members, onboarding procedures for new members, member expectations, social activities, outreach programs into the broader community (e.g., Kinston meeting), etc.

   - Greater member effectiveness initiative: the committee has developed a document outlining helpful tips on how to be a more effective member.

   - Continue to support established activities of BOV Engagement Committee: e.g., Watch List, social gatherings, pre-meeting events, recognition of contributions, helping find ways to serve the University effectively, etc.

   - Baseball game tomorrow, April 25, the BOV has invited the BOT and the Alumni Association board. BOV member Doug Strickland is hosting us at his... motor home at Stratford Arms starting at 12:30pm. Game time is 4:00pm.
Thanks to Athletics for providing tickets!

3) Fundraising and Development Committee – funds donated by board members go to funding Access Scholarships. We have successfully reached our goal of supporting four Access Scholars. We currently have two sophomores and two freshmen and their majors include Accounting, Nursing, and Public Health.

This committee is co-chaired by Sabrina Bengel and Brenda Myrick and is advised by Vice Chancellor Dyba.

- We successfully raised more money this fiscal year than any other year in the past!
- At our December meeting, we got to interact with our scholarship recipients through a panel format which was very engaging. An idea we have for next year is “where are they today?” to show what our former recipients (graduates) are doing now.

BOV Executive Committee:

- Angela Moss, Chair
- Reid Tyler, Vice Chair and Chair of the Legislative Committee
- Mark Garner, Secretary
- Doug Strickland, Chair of the Engagement Committee
- Sabrina Bengal and Brenda Myrick are co-chairs of the Fundraising Committee

Purpose of the BOV – to assist the Board of Trustees and the Chancellor to promote the development of the university. Members will:

- help ensure university effectiveness,
- convey its mission, programs and accomplishments,
- advise and assist with developmental activities, and
- serve as ambassadors for the university

Please let us know how we can support you!

UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

Heritage Hall
We had a lengthy discussion regarding the plan and establishment of Heritage Hall. I appointed two of our committee members, Max Joyner & Bob Plybon to be liaisons for this project. There was a consensus that the group should capitalize on the current enthusiasm to move this project along quickly. VC Dyba shared that he has had conversations with some key personnel at the university, such as Virginia Hardy, Rick Niswander and Jan Lewis with the library, but there are still many questions that need answering that will help determine the project scope and next steps. The next step is Vice Chancellor Dyba, Max and Bob will name a staff working group to include all vested parties such as alumni, students, faculty, etc… The expectation is that at the July meeting, a more defined timeline will be presented and hopefully where it will be located and even an estimated cost so we know what fundraising efforts will be needed.

Fundraising Update & Campaign Preparation
Vice Chancellor Dyba shared the fundraising figures through March 2015. He was happy to report that our fundraising efforts as of March 31 exceed totals compared to last year.

Vice Chancellor Dyba also shared that the ECU Foundation and the Medical and Health Sciences Foundation have been working on updating their strategic plan in order to be in line with the university’s strategic plan. As the division of Advancement begins preparation for an upcoming campaign it is important that the foundations and the university mirror one another. He informed the committee that a newly created position is in the works to hire a campaign manager/director of strategic initiatives. University Advancement continues to prepare for a comprehensive campaign and will present a full presentation on campaign readiness at a future Trustee meeting.

Associated Entities
All four foundations provided edits to the Chancellor’s office regarding the revised regulations from UNC GA. ECU’s collective revisions were sent to GA by the requested March deadline and we have not received any feedback. Vice Chancellor Dyba expressed that the leadership of the four foundations is prepared and ready to be in compliance by July 1.

Namings
Vice Chancellor Dyba presented three Naming Proposals – the documentation is included in your board material. The proposals were all approved by the committee and I’ll have a motion at the end of my report.
BOV Appointments
Dr. Chris Locklear presented the slate of nominees for appointment to the Board of Visitors. There are five nominees for reappointment, 10 nominees for the Class of 2019 and one nominee to fill the vacancy in the Class of 2018. The slate of nominees were approved by this committee as presented and again, I’ll have the official motion at the end of my remarks.

ATHLETIC

Coaches Update
Coach Kobe from the Swimming and Diving Team brought the coach’s update yesterday. I want to take a minute to congratulate Coach Kobe and all his athletes for winning the AAC Championship this year, which is the first for ECU in the AAC.

Here are a few stats from the AAC Conference Championship meet:
- ECU won 11 events – eight men’s and three women’s events
- There were 45 All Conference Performances – 29 men and 16 women
- They broke 21 school records – 15 men’s records and 6 women’s records
- And at the end of the meet they were ranked 17th in the country

Overall this year, the women went 6-1 and the men went 5-2 – which represents 32 YEARS of non-losing seasons.

The swimming and diving team not only performs in the pool but they perform in the community and in the classroom. The team has logged over 2,000 community service hours this year and both the men and women’s team were Academic All American teams last year. We’re expecting the same for this year.

So again, congratulations to Coach Kobe and his athletes for representing ECU!

Sports Update
Jeff Compher brought a sports update. Spring football kicked off last weekend with well over 4,500 people attended the Spring football game. There was an equipment sale that brought over $53,000. This was the second year ECU Athletics has done this and hopefully will continue to do this in the future.

Baseball also had a great week this week, with two come-from-behind victories against ACC opponents – NC State and Duke.

Facilities Update
Jeff Compher also reported that ECU Athletics has identified CSL to perform a feasibility study on the premium seating in Dowdy – there will be more to come on that front. Repairs at Clark LeClair are also on the list of priorities.

Athletics Financial Report
Nick Floyd brought the Financial Report. Pirate Club numbers are up with $6.8M in pledges and over $5M in receipts. Since this is a reseating year, there was a huge incentive for Pirate Club members to get their payments made by April 1.
The increase in Pirate Club fees accounts for a portion of the numbers, but early returns are encouraging.

Cost of Attendance

Last week, ECU announced their approach to the full cost of attendance for student athletes. This initiative will allow athletes who receive a full scholarship to not only receive tuition and fees, room and board and books to be paid for, but will also account for supplies, personal expenses, transportation and loan fees. The total cost for in-state students will be $20,694 and for out of state $36,268. The additional money will be distributed into student bank accounts.

ECU Athletics is phasing this in over two years, with football, men’s and women’s basketball the first year and the other 16 sports the following year. This is the most aggressive implementation in the conference so far, which may help with recruiting. Other institutions are looking at a 4-5 year implementation schedule, or even capping the funding lower than 100%.

MOTIONS

I move that the board approve the naming proposals as presented in board materials.

I move that the board approve the slate of nominees for the ECU Board of Visitors as presented in board materials.

Action Items:
- Approval of February 19, 2015 minutes
- Approval of two changes to the FY 2014-15 audit plan (deferral of the Payroll/Kronos audit and the Follow-up of University Youth Programs); both deferred until the FY 2015-16 audit plan since the reviews would not have added significant value or advised management of anything that is not already known at this point

Managing and Governing Information Security Presentation – Mr. Don Sweet and Dr. Jack McCoy
- The CIO and CISO briefed the audit committee on the state of cybersecurity efforts at the University; security is an ongoing endeavor across all business areas...not just an “IT issue”
- “Hacking” is now about money – there is a large black market for the sale of big data; healthcare data is among the most valuable
- Historically the focus has been on prevention of breaches or exposures; this is important, but we also must focus on detection of such incidents so that the effects can be mitigated quickly
  - ECU does have resources allocated to reviewing activity and detecting events, but implementation of additional aggregation and monitoring tools will make this more efficient and effective
- ECU (and the UNC system) has adopted the ISO-27002 Information Technology Security Techniques international standard and is in the process of closing gaps in our existing policies and the optimal state
- The committee stressed the importance of timely implementation and enforcement of strong security policies and mandatory training/awareness efforts so that employees can be held accountable for the security and privacy of data in their care – security must be embedded into the University’s culture
- The committee has requested more frequent updates on cybersecurity due to the high level of risk involved

ERM Report – Mr. Tim Wiseman
- Mr. Wiseman presented an update on the current year’s risk prioritization exercise – this exercise results in the “top 10” risk list for the University. This list is used in the development of the annual internal audit plan, and is used by legal and other offices in determining resource allocation
- Mr. Wiseman presented the current list and compared it with previous lists, discussing trends and the risk management committee’s assessment of whether the potential impact of specific risks has improved or worsened over time. The committee members advised that it was important to also consider the mitigation efforts that are in place, as well as an assessment of whether ECU “owns” or can only “influence” the specific risk in order to paint an accurate picture in this regard.
- The next steps are to share the top risk list with the Chancellor’s Executive Committee, and to assign each risk to sub-groups of the risk management committee and to risk owner(s) for discussion and action on mitigation efforts.
- Chancellor Ballard noted that ECU is considered by UNC-GA to be the most proactive and transparent institution in the system with regard to discussing risks and mitigation efforts.
- Board Chair Brinkley requested that thought be given to how we engage the entire board in the discussion of top risks and mitigation efforts

Internal Audit Report – Ms. Stacie Tronto
- Ms. Tronto presented the Internal Audit dashboard. The current year’s audit plan is 58% complete and is on track to meet or exceed the target 80% completion rate by June 30. The direct productivity hours may not meet the goal of 75%, due to extended medical leave of staff member(s). IA is currently at 70% direct hours.
- There are currently three (3) outstanding/unresolved corrective actions by management on prior audit recommendations; additional follow-ups are in progress, so this number will likely change
  - The overall completion rate is 81%; the target is 95%
  - Ms. Tronto stated that while the University is short of the target, management is taking these items seriously, and “we are in a good place” with regard to the University’s overall responsiveness in addressing internal controls and other recommendations
- The committee discussed the importance of the recommendations related to University Youth Programs being addressed in a timely manner; wherever possible, prior to this summer’s camps.

Minutes from the February 19, 2015 meeting were approved. Dr. Cunningham stated that the Match Day results were very positive with a 100% match result.

Dr. Niswander reviewed the financial year-to-date information as of the end of March 2015. Co-pays were up 18%. Over a 12-month period, the cash reserves had increased from 58 days to 66 days and approximately $4M. The total operating revenues were improved and the total operating expenses had decreased. There are a lot of positive changes in the ECU Physicians Practice Management Indicators with a 15.7% improvement in Pro-Fee Collections and a 15% improvement in inpatient E&M visits. Dr. Cunningham and Dr. Benson reviewed the ECU Physicians Core Purpose document that has been created to assist and provide focus in the future planning with strategic direction and practice transformation work.

Chancellor Ballard and Dr. Horns gave a follow-up from the April 8th meeting with representatives from the BOG/BOT/UNC-GA. Chancellor Ballard stated that the meeting provided the group with a status update on the relationship and clinical integration activities between the BSOM and Vidant Health. This meeting showed the progress in clinical integration efforts in the last 9-month period and discussed the plans for the next steps. Dr. Horns stated that the Vidant Health Board understands and is committed to be engaged with our BOT members and leadership to redefine the relationship and the direction it takes in the future. Dr. Ballard, Dr. Horns and other leadership are very pleased with the results of the national search for the Vidant Health CEO position in hiring Dr. Michael Waldrum who will start on June 1, 2015. They appreciate his commitment to the academic mission and the importance of a partnership.

Dr. Van Scott presented an overview of the possibility of an ECU/Vidant joint venture in coordinating clinical trials. This joint venture has a $10M-$20M revenue potential. The vision of this is to set an entity between the two institutions to rollout services in the entire region and to provide state-of-the-art care. Dr. Van Scott plans to present a business plan on this venture to the BOT in July.

Ms. Brooks gave a legislative update. The anticipated amount of SODCA funds that will be collected in 2015 is approximately $1.2M - $1.25M. Rep. Brown sponsored legislation to reinstate full SODCA authority for UNC and ECU. The bill passed the House this week. The Governor’s Budget was released and includes $8M in recurring funds for BSOM, an increase in medical examiner fees and enhanced Medicaid reimbursement for the School of Dental Medicine. Ms. Brooks reinforced the importance of working in tandem with Vidant Health as we educate legislators about the importance of the relationship and the impact of policy decisions.

Action Items:

The Health Sciences Committee reviewed two initial appointments with permanent tenure in the BSOM for Dr. Janet Tuttle-Newhall and Dr. Espen E. Spangenberg. A motion was made to approve the initial appointment with permanent tenure as approved by the Chancellor and as presented in the Board materials. Motion passed unanimously.

Others in Attendance: Keiren Shanahan, Vern Davenport, Bob Plybon, Steve Jones, Max Joyner, Ron Mitchelson, Virginia Hardy, Michael Van Scott, and Steve Ballard

  o Dr. Hardy shared information from the national landscape regarding Greek Life and some recent situations occurring on ECU’s campus over the last five years. She shared growth numbers at ECU as well as membership numbers since spring 2011. The GPA’s for Greek women is comparable to non-Greek women and Greek men are just below the non-Greek men average grade point.
  o The presidents of the four Greek Councils answered questions. Questions included:
    ▪ What are your top two priorities within each Council?
      Raise visibility, Safety, Members doing things the right way and Community Service.
    ▪ How do you communicate with the chapters to reinforce the policies in place to get in front of someone getting in trouble or detrimental to someone’s health
      Panhellenic has monthly roundtables among the chapters to communicate and share on related/important topics.
      NPHC goes to a retreat out of town each January to get on the same page and then take back to their members. Also take leadership to national conferences to learn and share.
      IFC aims to be an advocate for the 17 chapters to offer positive options and ideas and serve as a resource.
    ▪ Do you get enough support from the administration to be successful??
      Consistent responses across the councils were yes. ECU is doing great things with Greek Life and Erik Kneuebuhl’s hiring are helpful. The accountability is on “us”
    ▪ How do the students sell themselves positively on campus to non-Greek students?
      Biggest perceptions are usually misperceptions. The more they learn about who we are and what we do, the more they appreciate what we are about.

Academic Affairs - Ron Mitchelson

Conferral of Degrees – Motion presented by Mr. Srednicki and seconded by Mr. Mabe. This motion was approved without dissention.

Update of History Curriculum – Provost Mitchelson shared pieces of progress for this project. There will be a digital historical video documentary focused on ECU. Faculty on campus from the Department of History and School of Art are producing the video project. Another option would be to require it as part of a course, but there is an FTE issue associated with that. It could be offered as an elective instead of a requirement. The request would be to provide regular updates at future Board meetings about the video project and other pieces tied to Heritage Hall and Aycock Hall.

Research and Graduate Studies - Michael Van Scott

Implementation of BOG Centers and Institutes Report Recommendations
  o Dr. Van Scott said these are called system wide centers and if they aren’t functioning as such they shouldn’t be named system wide centers. Dr. Van Scott shared the history of the Center for Applied Computational Studies dating back to 2003. The center’s operations will move to the Department of Chemistry with maintenance funding included.
  o A motion was made by Ms. Mabe to discontinue the center and seconded by Mr. Srednicki. The motion was approved without dissention.

Dean Downs:

The Department of Chemistry hereby requests that the Center for Applied Computational Studies (CACS) be discontinued as a University of North Carolina authorized Center.

CACS was established in 2003 to document institutional support for proposals to the National Science Foundation (NSF) for extramural funds to purchase hardware and software for computational methods, molecular modeling, and data visualization. In 2004 and 2006, CACS received two awards totaling over $700,000 under the NSF Major Research Infrastructure (MRI) program. The equipment was housed in space designated by Information and Technology Computing Services (ITCS). The awards required East Carolina University to provide annual support for maintenance of the equipment, and those funds were allocated from the budget of the East Carolina University Division of Research beginning in 2011, once the maintenance support that was built into the NSF proposals expired (the latter proposal provided umbrella coverage for the hardware acquired in the former grant). Faculty in the Department of Chemistry oversaw the facility and provided tutorials and consultations on the equipment and facilities. Other than the federal awards in 2004 and 2006, all funding for support of CACS was from East Carolina University. Last year, funding for maintenance of the equipment was transferred from the Division of Research and Graduate Studies to the Department of Chemistry budget. Therefore, at the present time all of the resources in support of CACS are provided through the Department of Chemistry and ITCS.

CACS currently serves over 120 unique users from the following institutions:

- East Carolina University
- North Carolina State University
- University of North Carolina at Wilmington
- North Carolina Agriculture & Technical University
- United States Environmental Protection Agency and
- NC School of Science and Mathematics (NCSSM)

and the computers in CACS are linked to the NC High School Computational Chemistry Server at the NCSSM.

The Department of Chemistry is committed to offering services to its users, but as a departmental facility as opposed to a UNC-designated center.

Thank you for considering this request.

The ECU Board of Trustees Nominating Committee met in regular session on June 22, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. in Spilman 203. Chair Edwin Clark called the meeting to order.

Members of the committee present included Edwin Clark, Robert Brinkley, Vern Davenport and Terry Yeargan (all participated via phone). Other board members present included Mark Copeland, Steve Jones and Kieran Shanahan. Kel Norman and Mark Matulewicz also participated.

Mr. Clark read the conflict of interest statement; no conflicts were identified.

Mr. Clark discussed the nominating committee’s process, which includes members of the committee contacting board members individually to discuss their desire to potentially serve as an officer and/or their recommendations of board members that would serve the board well in leadership roles.

Mr. Davenport and Mr. Yeargan will send the feedback that they gather to Mr. Clark for review and compilation. If there is a clear majority of support for one particular nominee for a specific office, then that will be the board member the nominating committee will put forward on their slate. If there is no clear majority, then all the names that have support will be put forward.

Mr. Clark reminded the board that the information gathered by the committee does not constitute a vote for a certain member and that the official vote for officers will be held on July 17. He also reminded the board that any member may be nominated from the floor on July 17.

Hearing no other business, Mr. Clark adjourned the meeting at 4:15 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

The ECU Board of Trustees Nominating Committee met in regular session on June 29, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. in Spilman 203. Chair Edwin Clark called the meeting to order.

Members of the committee present included Edwin Clark, Robert Brinkley and Terry Yeargan (all participated via phone). No other board members participated.

Mr. Clark read the conflict of interest statement; no conflicts were identified.

Mr. Clark briefly recapped the June 22, 2015 meeting and the process for gathering information from board members in regards to whom they support for officers for 2015-2016. Mr. Clark then said that given the feedback that has been received, there was a clear majority of support to nominate Steve Jones for chair of the board. While there was not a clear majority, there was support for both Mark Copeland and Kieran Shanahan to be nominated for vice chair, and there was clear support to nominate Bob Plybon as secretary.

Mr. Clark asked for a motion to approve recommending the following slate of officers to the board:

Chair  Steve Jones
Vice Chair  Mark Copeland
            Kieran Shanahan
Secretary  Bob Plybon

Mr. Yeargan made the motion. Mr. Brinkley seconded the motion. The motion was approved with no negative votes.

Again, Mr. Clark reminded those present that this in no way constitutes a vote for officers; this is just the vote on the slate to be presented and any member can be nominated from the floor on July 17.

Hearing no other business, the Mr. Clark adjourned the meeting at 4:35 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
